v.

DEPUTY ALEX SLIGER, et al., Defendants.

Cause No. 2:25-cv-00532-PPS-AZ

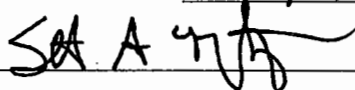

DECLARATION OF SCOTT MONTGOMERY

I, Scott Montgomery, declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my personal knowledge:

1. On June 5, 2025, at approximately 3:43 a.m., I was awakened by Tippecanoe County Sheriff's officers at my front door.
2. The officers informed me that they were looking for Austin and Tanner Clugh.
3. I informed the officers that I did not know Tanner Clugh and that Austin was not permitted on the property.
4. I also informed the officers that my roommate, Tyler Schriber, had spoken with Austin in the driveway earlier the previous day.
5. After I answered a few more questions, I saw my roommate Tyler running across the front yard.
6. The officers asked me who it was, and I told them it was my roommate, Tyler Schriber.
7. The officers then asked me to go to the backyard and let my dog inside the house. After doing so, I came back to the front and was asked to stay inside.
8. After the commotion ended, the officers asked to search the inside of the house. Figuring they would not take no for an answer, and because I had nothing to hide, I allowed them to search the inside of the house.
9. I did not tell the officers that Tanner Clugh was present inside the house, and I did not tell the officers that Tyler Schriber was Tanner Clugh.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.
